

The Toby Show

The “Toby Tent” was filled with action last weekend as the Rivertime Players “strutted their stuff” in their kick-off performance. Not only were there plenty of local people, but there were also visitors from California, Texas, New York, Missouri and Massachusetts. They well got their money’s worth, according to the attendees.

This Friday and Saturday, it will even be more special as eight former “Toby” actors will be in town. The former troupers include: Michael “Mickey” Lacey of Vilonia, AR; Roberta Wilkes of Bonner Springs, KS; Dick Ellis of Quincy, IL; David Ripper of Cedar Rapids, IA; Grace Davis of Mt. Pleasant, IA; David Wagaman of Burlington, IA; Mark Pepper of Washington, MO and Bob Hollis of Scottsburg, IN.

Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m. the “tried and true” former troupers will be available for a question and answer session under the big top tent located next to the Parsons Centre. Everyone is invited to attend and find out “how it used to be” and still is.

Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2-3, the performances begin at 7:30, with the tent “flaps” opening at 6:30 for pre-show entertainment. Admission is $7 for adults and $2 for children under 13.

Performances will be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 2-3 and Friday and Saturday, Oct. 9-10. Tickets may be purchased at the door.
